SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR INSTITUTE MILESTONES 2006 – 2007

Lillian S. Robinson, feminist scholar and activist, and Principal of the Simone de Beauvoir Institute died on September 19, 2006 in the Montréal General Hospital at the age of 65. The cause was ovarian cancer.

Viviane Namaste accepted the position of Acting Principal of the Institute.

Part-time lecturer Tanisha Ramachandran has been given a job as a full time professor at Wake Forest University in North Carolina.

SdB Institute Academic Advisor, Linda Bowes has given us 20 amazing years of her service. There will be a ceremony to mark this anniversary in May.

Communications Officer, Marie-Claire MacPhee has left her position at the Institute after 5 years.

We had 161 programme students this year.

SdB Institute Fellow, Yasmin Jiwani launched her book Discourses of Denial – a brilliant combination of scholarship and activism.

A number of Simone de Beauvoir Institute students were on the organizing committee of the very successful Study in Action undergraduate conference, that took place in April 2007. This conference will hopefully be an annual event.

Part-time lecturer Candis Steenbergen gave birth to a beautiful baby girl last July.

Public Memorial for Lillian S. Robinson

Thursday, October 5, 2006
Le Mystique. 1424, rue Stanley
5:00 – 7:00pm

The passing of our colleague, friend, scholar, mentor and fellow activist Lillian Robinson has touched our lives dramatically in the past week. The Simone de Beauvoir Institute is hosting a relaxed, informal gathering to honour her life and memory. In the spirit of Lillian, it's a chance to see some friends, discuss feminist theory, plan your next demonstration, and tell a tale or two.

KATHLEEN O'SHEA

who presented a lecture entitled

Women, Gender, and the Death Penalty in the United States

Monday October 23, 2006
Concordia University - VA-114
1395 René Lévesque West

Kathleen A. O'Shea, a nun for 35 years, is a social worker who does research on female offenders, with an emphasis on women on death row. She is a teacher, writer, human rights advocate, and lecturer. She has published Female Offenders: An Annotated Bibliography, Women and the Death Penalty in the United States: 1900-1998, and, Women On The Row: Revelations From Both Sides of the Bars. Her recently finished manuscript Against The Dying Light is a collection of stories by 30 nuns who befriended death row inmates.

Dr. M. Catherine Maternowska

Assistant Professor, Center for Reproductive Health Research and Policy, University of California, San Francisco.

who discussed her new book:

Reproducing Inequalities: Poverty and the Politics of Population in Haiti

Tuesday, November 14, 2006

2170 Bishop, Conference Room. MU 203 – 12:00.

Dr. Maternowska is a medical anthropologist interested in exploring the ways that health-related policies can harm, rather than enhance public health, and using ethnographic research as a tool for investigating how best to improve policy and ultimately practice. She is developing further studies on the social dynamics of NGO activities in health that assess the interface between international development, national counterparts and the poor communities they are supposed to serve. Dr. Maternowska is also interested in pushing to improve access to contraceptives as a reproductive right and designing projects that ensure access to needed health care for poor women and men.

READING ROOM REPORT

Submitted by - Isabelle Lamoureux M.L.I.S - Head Librarian

Statistics - fall 2006

Patrons: 831
Loans: 942 books
Reference: 403 questions
Fines: $1081

Statistics – winter 2007

Patrons: 444
Loans: 513 Books
Reference: 245 questions
Fines: $ 443

It is quite visible that reducing the librarian hours – and therefore the length of opening hours – had a tremendous impact on students, reference questions, loans and fines. Only half the students – when compare to fall 2006 statistics - were able to reach me!

Books and more ...

Number of patrons using the RR: 1275
New patrons registered: 136
Monographs purchased: 50
Monographs added to the collection: 161
Periodical subscriptions renewed: 15
Missing/stolen books: 23 – cost over $500 (1/4 of the budget)
Acquisitions budget: $ 2000.00 (unchanged in over a decade)

Gifts and Donations

Lillian's family has donated 576 monographs to the Reading Room. Professor Namaste, Maillé and Aramaki have also kindly donated material.
Every donation is worth mention therefore my sincere apology if I forgot and/or made a mistake.

Work Study program

Women's Studies student Shailagh Keaney filled the position during fall and winter semesters working 15 hours per week at an hourly rate of $10.00. Shailagh performed her duties in an excellent manner. However, she will not be joining us next year since she is graduating. Her presence will be missed!

Projects

This year the theme box and the yellow dot projects have been implemented.

- Theme Box: I created the theme box concept which is single periodical issue, articles, reviews, government publications, old coursepacks, etc... all classified

- under one subject like: violence, health, transsexuals, environment, etc. Grouping valuable documents that were not accessible through the card catalogue.
- Yellow Dots: a yellow dot is put on the spine of books that are considered Women's Studies essential readings like Ain't I a Woman and the Second Sex, but also Feminist Issues: race, class and sexuality, Gendered Intersection and Open Boundaries, to name just a few.
